Peace Hero is the one who helps, cares and works for the wellness, wellbeing and welfare of fellow human beings in all walks of life. Peace Heroes an institution as old as war between virtue and evil began. All past reformist have endeavored through education and practice for the noble cause, prevalence of virtue in social life ultimately Peace.

A known natural phenomenon of human life, for every action there is a reaction. For every negative action there are multiple reactions.

1. Reaction with same negative intensity.
2. Reaction with fierce intensity.

3. Tolerance with positive reaction for reformation of negative approach through education. Peace Hero falls in this category. Most glaring example in recent history is of Mr. Nelson Mandela.

Modernity has changed the lifestyle, in this digital age there is acceleration in introduction of new innovations in technology, like computers, cell phones, fashion and branded dresses, cosmetics and other luxury items.

Trend in youth for purchasing these articles have disturbed the balance of family budget. Lust and greed of corporate business tycoons is widening the gap between rich and working class resulting in increasing feeling of despair, conflicts, disputes and disparities every where over the globe. Further more global warming, uncontrolled arms and weapons production, trade and use along with race for space hegemony have upset the scenario of World Peace. In such turbulence situation of the world, role of Peace Heroes have become very importance and vital which is difficult task. ## Disparities Cause of Disruption in Peace

The story of the physical evolution of Humankind could be million of years old. However, Man's social evolution is not that distant. In fact the humankind is on continuous journey. Seeking and redefining society. The Hallmark of this process of redefining Civilization is Man's continuous quest to live in a society of Truth, Love, Respect, Justice, Empathy, Compassion, Tolerance, Forbearance, Education, Honesty and Equality. The purpose was to maintain discipline and peaceful order in the society for the welfare, well being, safety, security and happiness of its members.

The Human selected his abode which was rich in natural resources, water, food and the like. In case of famine or increase in population, Man had to look for other areas which resulted in fights and wars between migrant and already settled people in that area. A new doctrine of masters and slaves was introduced in human society negative instincts like arrogance, greed, hatred came to surface. With the passage of time system of government evolved from tribal system to a country system. Necessity turned in to greed to fetch more areas. History is full of wars based on Human greed.

The invention of printing machine in Germany changed the scenario of human knowledge. New windows of knowledge were opened resulting in many inventions in various fields of life. There evolved new concepts of arms and weapons. Guns, tanks, trucks replaced the swords, arrows and horses. Europe became centre of modern education on the planet.

Some countries from Europe first started trading and then conquering other countries in different regions of the world. The newly annexed regions became colonies of the conquering Nations who embarked upon a process of resource transfers for the benefit of their own citizens. The newly Colonial powers introduced new Administrative structures which were solely which were largely for ruling the subjects and also introduced infra structure like Railways, Healthcare system, justice system and educational institutions,. Exploitation of resources was the Prime object. The children of the colonies were forced to study foreign languages for the purpose of jobs in different departments of the Governments. The under developed nations have the same old inferior standard of education system. In presence of this the students of these countries have to look for higher education towards the countries with higher standard education system of developed world, which kept mental growth of people of these countries at a very low level.

In the colonies, rule was perpetuated through existing elite. A new class of bureaucracy was set also in place with powers to control the masses. Their job was to serve the Masters maintaining the distance between the subjects and the rulers. After the II-world war, the Colonial powers became weak and had to grant independence to the colonies. The so called independent Nations ran the same old Administrative system. Bureaucracy and Army of new nations took the role of Masters replacing the old. They preferred to continue running the country in previous manner. Except few, rest all had to rely on aids and loans from previous masters to run the business of Governments. This reliance, later on proved to be a Trap as countries went into another kind of enslavement which is called Debt Enslavement. The Financial institutions and the aid giving countries, agencies laid conditions and restriction in such a way that the loan receiving country gradually became an independent nation.

Only one or two countries have successfully continued to apply Democratic political system for running the country. All others had gone through periodic phases of dictatorship or continuation of kingdom system which hampered the path of evolutionary thinking of human mind. In general the affairs of these countries were interfered by the powerful countries as reflected in the declassified documents. In absence of accountability norms, rampant corruption in all fields of the social system of developing world is visibly manifest.

The corrupt political and non-political leadership of under developed nations have deposited huge sums of plundered money in foreign banks. There is no strict control and check over money laundering which is a financial crime. Only a few agencies have been created. They too scam to have failed to perform effective role in their functions. May be lack of support from U.N.O.

Approximately, 7 trillion Dollars/Euros of poor countries are lying abroad whereas their citizens face sufferings deprivation, misery of various kinds. They also pay back loans with interest for the money which was never used for their welfare.

The banker in a foreign bank offers dinner to a thief of a under developed country for opening an account and fulfilling the formalities at his own. Whereas a student has to prove the legitimacy and fulfill many requirements for only a few thousands. This reflects exploitation.

The corrupt leadership of under developed countries is generally known as thieves in the developed countries whereas the same are populous leader of poor nation. Protection and corroboration of a thief is no where approved in Human Society.

After the II-world war, Developed Nations have established the barrier of visa system which restricts the entry of citizens belonging to developing countries.

The developed world, allow only labour class from these countries as per their need and requirements. For talent hunt they offer scholarships to talented ones. This process is generally known as “Brain Drain”.

It is surprising that no new nation has been able to develop itself to enter in the list of Developed Nations as if the Intelligence. Talent and Wisdom has stopped its birthing in the under developed world.

People of developed world are far more pro-active in thinking of human behavior and affairs. To bring humanity on parity in respect of progress, it would be appropriate for the developed world to share their knowledge in science and technology freely with the people of under developed world as they are 88% of world population to avoid any unseen human catastrophe in the future. There is a suggestion also that all the children living on the planet must be provided free education up to highest standard without discrimination. No one knows which child is blessed by nature, who can contribute for the wellbeing of Humanity.

Since thousands of years humanity has crossed only one barrier i.e. abolition of colour discrimination. Nelson Mandela could never think addressing the UNO fifty years back whereas many heads of the States attended his funeral.

Many other barriers like Nation, Language, Gender, Faith, Religion are yet to be removed, hopefully soon as there is fast growing of awareness regarding oneness of humanity because of interconnectivity through internet and electronic media. More responsibility lies on the people of developed world as they are advanced in knowledge. There is a need of removing disparities among people for more secure, safe, peaceful and prosperous world.

Humanity is one
The earth is for all
To enjoy its fruits
Have a big heart to share
Knowledge and resources
With spirit of love and respect for all
On equity

Doctrine of Master and Slaves

Social and Economic system of society revolves round this phenomena which works for the interest of the masters and not for the subject. Major portion of the profit goes to the masters as compared to wages and salaries of working class. This is the sheer exploitations of actual contributor. The same principle is applied in international financial system.

Wisdom

It is positive thinking, good acts and deeds for the welfare of human beings on the basis of principles of humanity; Truth, Knowledge, Justice, Honesty, Equality, Love, Respect, Empathy to Compassion. Tolerance, Forbearance, Established through the evolutionary process of Humanity for the safety, Peace, Prosperity and Tranquility of Humanity.

Conclusion

New innovations in the field of information like internet, media, cell phones paved the way for inter exchanging views between people globally. This is helping in flourish the idea of oneness of humanity. New generation rising against all ills of social disparities. It can be hoped that in near future, life of human beings will be more on positive path ways, eventually virtue will prevail over evil.
